

kstate CREDIT UNION Official Change of Address Form

In an effort to provide the security of your personal information, a signature is required from either the main member or a joint owner of an account to change the address listed on the account. In the instance that a member has more than one account, whether a main or joint owner, you will need to fill out a form to have the address changed. If the main owner is a minor, the legal guardian or parent may sign. After filling out the form, please bring the form into a K-State Credit Union Office, or you may mail or fax or scan and e-mail it to the following:
