Your Credit Union: A Safe Harbor

Jack Thoman, Volunteer Board Member

Mr. Jack Thoman has served on the kstate CREDIT UNION volunteer board of directors for over 30 years. This is a wonderful show of dedication to the movement and our credit union. While a board member, he served as Secretary for many years. He became a member of kstate CREDIT UNION in 1972. Professionally, Thoman worked as the Assistant Director/ Business Services of K-State Student Union and retired in January 2016. THANK YOU JACK!!!

April is Youth Month

We are encouraging young members to make a deposit to their savings account in April as a way to build their savings. If you know a child that would like to open a youth savings account, please reach out to our team to get started.

Education & Training

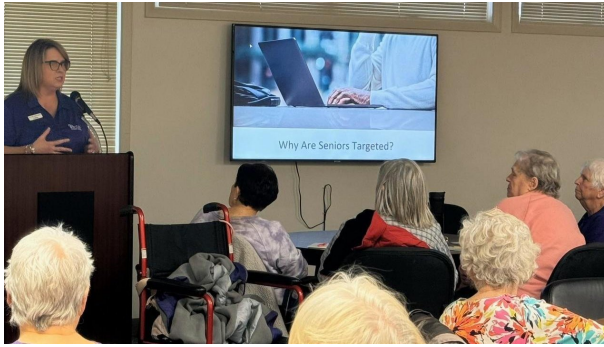

Stacy Shaffer, Jen Shelton & Erin Olson coordinated a training day for all credit union team members to teach on a variety of topics.

The team training day included some healthy competition where team members tested their skills learned about different processes.

In our Community

Linda Sharum and Stacy Shaffer presented at the Manhattan Senior Center in March. They covered the important topic of scams and fraud and how to protect yourself. There were about 35 community members in attendance for their presentation.

Erin Olson presented to a personal finance class at Manhattan High School to talk with them about saving, budgeting, credit and other important financial topics.
